

Nashville Union.

S. C. MERCER, Editor.

All subscribers in arrears to the Nashville Daily Union are respectfully requested to pay the Bonds Agent, or call and settle at the office, or their paper will be discontinued.

OLD NEWSPAPERS.

We have a small quantity of old newspapers, suitable for wrapping paper, which we will dispose of at 50cts per hundred. Those in need of such an article, will do well to call soon and secure a supply, as wrapping paper is a commodity not to be met with every day, and more especially at the present time.

Particular Notice.

Mr. C. D. Warriner has assumed the control of our city subscription list. He will see that the UNION is delivered regularly to city subscribers every morning. He will also make collections promptly, at least every two weeks. No money taken but Tennessee, or par funds. who remained.

Please Notice.

We have no time to transcribe communications. We sometimes receive communications with a scrap of confidential information written on the back of the manuscript. Of course if we use the manuscript we have to re-write it, and this imposes entirely too much labor on us. We have no time for such work.

Notice to Club-Makers.

The Editor will be greatly obliged to persons making up clubs for the UNION if they will remit to the publishers and not to himself. Communications and subscriptions are sometimes mixed up with private information in such a manner as to cause needless delay and trouble to all parties.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at the great State Union Convention held in this city May 12, 1862:

Resolved, That we recognize in the Nashville Union an able exponent of the principles of the Union men of Tennessee, and we earnestly recommend it as well deserving of the patronage of Union men everywhere.

CONFISCATION ACT.

(Printed—No. 160.)
An act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes.

It is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every person who shall hereafter commit the crime of treason against the United States, and shall be adjudged guilty thereof, shall suffer death, and all his slaves, if any, shall be declared and made free; and at the discretion of the court, he shall be imprisoned for not less than five years, and fined not less than ten thousand dollars; said fine shall be levied and collected on any or all of the property, real and personal, excluding slaves, of which the said person so convicted was the owner at the time of committing the said crime, any sale or conveyance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall hereafter incite, set on foot, assist, or engage in any rebellion or insurrection against the authority of the United States, or the laws thereof, or shall give aid or comfort thereto, or shall engage in, or give aid and comfort to, any such existing rebellion or insurrection, and be convicted thereof, such person shall be punished by imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten years or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and by the liberation of all his slaves if any he have; or by both of said punishments, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That every person guilty of either of the offenses described in this act shall be forever incapable and disqualified to hold any office under the United States.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall not be construed in any way to affect or alter the prosecution, conviction, or punishment of any person or persons guilty of treason against the United States before the passage of this act, unless such person is convicted under this act.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That, to ensure the speedy termination of the present rebellion, it shall be the duty of the President of the United States to cause the seizure of all the estate and property, money, stocks, credits, and effects of the persons hereinbefore named in this section, and to apply and use the same and the proceeds thereof for the support of the army of the United States; that is to say:

First. Of any person hereafter acting as an officer of the army or navy of the rebels in array against the Government of the United States.

Secondly. Of any person hereafter acting as President, Vice-President, member of Congress, judge of any court, cabinet officer, foreign minister, commissioner or consul of the so-called Confederate States of America.

Thirdly. Of any person, acting as Governor of a State, member of a Convention or Legislature, or judge of any court of any of the so-called Confederate States of America.

Fourthly. Of any person who, having held an office of honor, trust or profit in the United States, shall hereafter hold an office in the so-called Confederate States of America.

Fifthly. Of any person hereafter holding an office or agency under the so-called Confederate States of America, or under any of the several States of the said Confederacy, or the laws thereof, whether such office or agency be national, state, or municipal, in its name or character: Provided, That the persons thirdly, fourthly and fifthly above described shall have accepted their appointment or election since the date of the promulgation or adoption of the Constitution of the so-called Confederate States of America.

Sixthly. Of any person who, owning property in any loyal State or Territory of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist and give aid and comfort to such rebellion, and all sales, transfers, or conveyances of any such property shall be null and void; and

PROSPECTUS OF THE NASHVILLE UNION.

The Nashville Union was commenced a few weeks ago, for the purpose of opposing the Rebels Southern Confederacy, and of advocating the cause of our country, without any statement over the heads which have attempted to smother the voice of the people, and silence all who oppose them. The news of all other papers, and stories set off who oppose the Union, and the cause of Freedom and Nationality.

With truth and frankness, we have no compensation to make for the Federal Government and the laws in progress thereof as the Stevens law, or the Loyal, entitled in the Constitution and laws of our country to the contrary notwithstanding.

It contends for the Union of the States, because without it the preservation of our liberties and institutions, and the regeneration of society, is simply impossible. Therefore whatever stands in the way of crushing out the rebellion and restoring a Union must perish, no matter what name it goes by.

To the people of Tennessee, ever ready for their devotion to liberty and Union, until they see us trample on the rebel dogmatists at Richmond by a just and wise Legislature, and who sincerely hope for the restoration of our country and our Union, we appeal for support. Let the men who have followed us, follow us, and let us all stand together with one heart, and one hand, for the Union.

It is the only army intelligence office in the country, and the information of soldiers from any of the states will be given daily by calling or writing to the Army Intelligence Office.

The Army Intelligence Office is open daily, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M., and is located in the office of Connor & Bro., 102 Union Street.
